The UNDISGUISED TRUTH
Thought-Provoking Social and Political Commentary

By Marcia "Denrique" Preudhomme

The Undisguised Truth is a collection of thought-provoking social and political commentary. It challenges readers to delve deep into some of the most troubling issues in our society, as well as, provides an introspective look at what has arguably been one of the most memorable elections in U.S. history.

Marc A. Medley from The Reading Circle with Marc Medley on WP88.7 FM says, "If you don't want a challenging left-brain right-brain match, then The Undisguised Truth is not the book for you . . . Ms. Preudhomme is the prolific mastermind author of thought-provoking, informative, and often humorous social and political commentary."

Ms. Preudhomme is the author of a book of short fiction, Stranger Than Fiction and a collection of poetry, Reflections of Realism. She is the recipient of the 2006 Urban Spectrum Newspaper National Writers Award for Best Collection of Short Fiction. She is currently writing her next book, a thriller titled Deception is Reality.

The Undisguised Truth is available in bookstores for $13.95 and online at www.amazon.com, www.barnesandnoble.com and www.wheatmark.com.
